VAWA Emergency Transfer Plan

Order Form

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), enacted in 1994, provides services, protection, and justice for victims of violence. The reauthorization of VAWA in 2019 included protection for all genders, not just women and expanded the definition of violence to include: Domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, bullying, and stalking. PMCS has created a VAWA Emergency Transfer Plan to assist managers in ensuring that HUD-required criteria are met when administering this plan. Order your copy today!

NOTE: We perform our services using our extensive industry knowledge, contacts, and experience acquired over the more than 35 years we have served the Affordable Housing Industry. The services detailed in our contract do not in any way imply or guarantee that your Contract Administrator and/or HUD will not have questions, 'findings', or 'observations' in your Management & Occupancy Review Report. Due to inconsistencies and policy directives from HUD that are unclear or appear contradictory and the resulting myriad interpretations that exist within the Affordable Housing Industry, the variability in citations/comments is beyond anyone's control. Prices subject to change without notice.
